

Bargain Buckle.

VOLUME XV.—NUMBER 53.

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY, TUESDAY, JULY 4, 1893.

Twice a week at $2 a year.

WHOLESALE PRICES AT RETAIL

Our great advantage over other merchants in having a wholesale connection and a New York buyer constantly in the market enables us to offer Dry Goods at all times at the same or less prices than other merchants pay. That's why our cost does not wrong us—we fatten on them—our great business is forcing right ahead—new goods coming in almost daily and our stock kept like a flowing stream, free from all stagnation.

ODONTOMETER. Teeth Extracted Without Pain.

Dr. W. D. Haley, of Lexington, specialist in Dental Surgery and State Agent of the Odontometer Patent.

Process of extracting teeth, will be the Phoenix Hotel in Hopkinsville, July 13th, 14th, 15th, 17th and 18th, and will extract teeth of all kinds and in all conditions entirely without pain or injury to mind or body, while the patients are wide awake and in full possession of their senses.

Dr. Haley has extracted teeth in fifty counties in Kentucky and numbers his patients by the tens of thousands, and during the last week in May removed nearly six hundred teeth in Owensboro. All who are interested are cordially invited to call and see for themselves that teeth of all kinds can be removed without pain while the patients are in full possession of their senses. Come early when you can remove the last attention, and not wait until the last day of the doctor's stay as he is often so crowded as to be obliged to turn away many. Dentists and physicians are especially invited. Charge 10 cents per tooth. Remember the date.
